Cora was twelve years old when her family moved to Numinbah, Gold Coast. Her father owned a dairy farm and Cora would help by doing a variety of tasks, from bookkeeping to driving the heavy vehicles.

In her spare time, she played tennis at the local school and this is where she met Harold. Harold was a hardworking man, a woodwork trophy winner and soon to be husband.

Harold and Cora enjoyed their time together, travelling parts of Australia, ballroom dancing, catching crabs, swimming in local rivers, and just simply enjoying each other's company. They married in 1955 and in the years that followed, had five children, those children had nine children, and those nine children had three children. Cora is a very proud mother, grandmother and great grandmother.

When Harold passed away Cora moved to a quiet area in Nerang. There she met a lady who recommended her to visit Liberty Community Connect.

"There are no strangers here, only friends you haven't met"

~ Cora

She was interested in coming along and having someone she knew that also went made the decision quite easy. Cora joined Liberty's Leisure and Lifestyle group, and this is where her new chapter would begin.

Cora now attends Liberty once a week for a fun packed day of activities, food and laughter. Cora also receives some help cleaning in her home by the staff at Liberty. "The girls are lovely, ten out of ten I give them."

At Liberty, Cora has made real connections, and friends! She enjoys the laughter, the games, the stories and the food - to name a few. "Before coming to Liberty my only outing was going to the local shops and now I have something to look forward to. Coming to Liberty is the highlight of my week!"
